Our faves are in the Pink Visual series Couples Seduce Teens where Lexi and hubby Ethan Cage take innocent young girls and turn them into bona fide porn sluts. THOSE WERE

LAYS

By William Margold

Playtime

Time is like an alley cat chasing its tail...eventually it winds up catching up with itself...and when it bites down on your sensibilities...you realize just how fast the years have rushed by.

And so it is that I am about to enter into the raw reflections of the week that I spent in November 1979 in the starring role of a hard-core feature called "Plato's The Movie" wherein my only wardrobe was in fact, a blue robe, and my only duties, besides delivering a few lines of dialogue, was to have my cock in as many sex scenes as possible—with or without the rest of my body being seen.

That this is being written at the same time that an amusing little documentary about New York's legendary Plato's Retreat called "American Swing" (which in fact incorporates scenes from "Plato's The Movie" in it) is making the independent theater rounds, only validates my opening sentiment further.

But I am getting way ahead of my own tail here.

Back in the early 1970's, when I was just starting to get my feet (etc.) wet in the Adult Entertainment Industry, I was introduced to the warm and writhing world of swinging by my very dear friend, adult filmmaker and photographer Titus Moody. One balmy night in the fall of 1973, Titus brought me to a swing house known as Chris and Flora's in Sherman Oaks. Within a few minutes he wandered off with the first friendly lady that came his way, leaving me standing alone, clad only in a towel and eagerness, waiting for something to happen. It didn't take long. An aggressive redhead walked up to me, reached out, and not for my hand, and led me off to a corner of the living room, where a comfortable couch became our passion pit...until our passion was pitted. Then I was encouraged to go off and find "more passion partners." Eventually I found myself in a dimly lit area, wallowing in a massive hot tub, replete with mountains of bubbles, partaking of whatever literally fell into my lap. And to this day, I still think that there was something four footed and woolly in that hot tub with which I played "bare bumper tag."

My "Swinging Saturday Evenings" segued into "Stumbling Sunday Mornings" as I was playing (with very little feeling left in my legs) in a flag football league during that period, so I opted out of the "Swing Scene" (although I did keep a few intimate relationships on the side) because I was getting more than enough action making X-rated films. Which eventually led, in 1979, to my being cast as Roger, the manager of Plato's Retreat West (located on Ivar in Hollywood) opposite Seka and Lisa DeLeeuw. But before I discuss my involvement in the film—which included me being BOTH dicks in a three-way scene with Becky Savage—I feel the need to rustle a few more calendar pages. In 1981, the garrulous Al Goldstein, a perpetual guest at New York's Plato's, and who championed the amorous activities of its founder Larry Levenson, on the pages of Screw, and who appears throughout "American Swing" asked me if I thought that I would be able to "knock off more women than Larry" over the period of an evening. In fact, Al was willing to bet on me against "The King of Swing." I must admit that I was tempted. But then I thought about it with head above my shoulders, and not wanting to squander whatever the magic was that made be able to "get up, get in, get out and get off" in front of the camera on an evening of meaningless sex...I declined.

I forgot all about Plato's and Larry Levenson until the spring of 1999, when while visiting New York for a convention called "Erotica USA" at The Jacob Javits Center, I was befriended by a bundle of investigative energy named Jon Hart. He told me that he was in process of interviewing Larry, and that one day he was going to make a documentary profiling him and his club and the era (the late 1970's) that allowed both of them to proliferate. And now, with "American Swing" (www.magpictures.com) Hart's project has come bubbling up from the depths of life's very own massive hot tub, right at the molten moment that my carnal cinema chronological timeline coincides with this installment of "Those Were The Lays."

Indeed...the alley cat has finally caught up with its tail.

Although I never had the opportunity to visit Plato's Retreat in at Plato's

New York, I can't resist relating a story about it as told to me by Ron "The Hedgehog" Jeremy many years ago while he was cleaning off my plate of food. It seems that one evening he and my adult industry idol Jamie Gillis (both of whom reflect radiantly in "American Swing") ran into each other in Plato Retreat's Men's room and while relieving themselves at the urinals, Ron remembers that Jamie, as only Jamie can, mused with a wry weariness "they're all pigs" and then proceeded to venture back into the fornicating fray.

Which brings me to Plato's Retreat West during the third week of November 1979...and into my blue bathrobe, which became my second skin for the next six days...although we did get Thanksgiving Day off.

Besides indulging in whomever the script required me to screw or be blown by throughout the shoot, I quickly adapted to the environment and played my role to the hilt, particularly with Tiffany Clark, who was appearing in her first film, and we had a thing for each other that resulted in a couple of wonderful off-camera exercises.

I was also called upon (four times) to perform scenes through the grotesque lips that had been drawn on and cut into a big yellow curtain located in what was known as "The Fantasy Room."

And finally, seeking to give the making of "Plato's The Movie" some added publicity I had invited a journalistic associate named Sam Frank to perform in the film, and then report his actions on the pages of The Hollywood Press. Lamentably, Sam's (toiling under the screen name of "Taurus") acting ability was considerably better than his carnal capabilities, and while he was able to "get it up" and "get it in" (briefly) during the two scenes that he had been scripted into, he was way too nervous to "get it out" and "get it off" when the cameras were rolling. And since I had brought him to the dance, the makers of the film figured that it was my responsibility to see to it that he finished the scenes...even if I had to provide the pop shots. While the first bit of "stunt dicking" was relatively easy—all I had to do was lay down and let the lovely lady on top of me pull me out and bring me off all over her bush—the second bit of business was considerably more difficult. Set in the Fantasy Room, I was already "doggy style" deep inside Becky Savage while she was servicing the cock that was sticking through the lips in the yellow curtain. That dick was supposed to be Taurus' but the fellow just wasn't up to the moment, so in a rather deft bit of editing, I provided Becky with the meat in her mouth when it mattered, while at the same I was supposedly still screwing Savage from behind. And she played her part masterfully, manually encouraging me to explode in her face, while at the same time she was going through the motions of writhing against me from behind. Knowing that the second of my money shots would be much better than my first, I opted to deliver my first load through the yellow curtain, and Becky worked me off quickly. Then not wanting to waste too much time, I returned to my place behind her, and within a few minutes I was able to pull out as she spun around and I coated her glasses with a copious amount of heat. Interestingly, Becky still wanted a little more attention after the scene was over, and since we were in a swing club, who was I to deny a damsel in frustrated distress, so we found a private room, and pleased each other until it was time to go home.

And speaking of "going home"... because we were shooting "Plato's The Movie" during the Thanksgiving week of November, we were given the day off to be "at home" with our loved ones. Which, for me, meant getting to see my beloved Detroit Lions playing in their annual holiday game on TV. 1979 had been a particularly miserable season for the Lions, as we had only won once up to the Thanksgiving Day game. But on that day, my Lions were anything but kittens, as they beat the Chicago Bears 20-0. It was our only other win that season, and it certainly inspired me to be at the peak of my performing game when I returned to the set on Friday morning.

Venturing through quite a number of the very inviting, just big enough for two or perhaps three hedonistic souls at a time, "private playpens" that day and evening, with a cameraman following close behind me, I let the lust from the Lions victory burst forth so many times that I lost count of my encounters. Indeed, this was one of the most agreeable casts that I had ever performed with up to that point in my career.

And seeking to aid Sam ("Taurus") Frank with his story, I had prepared a "Please describe what you'd like to do, or have done to you, when you visit The Fantasy Room" questionnaire for the very agreeable cast, and they were due to be handed in that Friday. And here are what some of cast members had to say:

Seka—"To have someone make a dirty phone call to me and then sneak into the room and make passionate love to me."

Lisa DeLeeuw—"I'd like to make that dirty phone to Seka. Then while she's still confused, but sexually excited, sneak into the room and fuck her with a great big dildo."

Maria Tortuga—"I would like to seduce Lisa DeLeeuw and then make her eat me while Mike Ranger is tied to the wall with black straps and is forced to watch."

Mike Ranger—"Five girls all over me."

Tawny Pearl—"Hide in a corner."

R.J. Reynolds—"None of your business."

David Rosen—"I have no fantasies."

Tiffany Clark—"I'd like to be dressed in a Roman outfit leading a Roman army of women that would take total control of the men."

Rebecca ("Becky") Savage—"Be blindfolded...eaten...and then fucked!"

Rachael Livingstone—"I'd like to make love to Seka. But I'd settle for watching a lady masturbate while I straddle a man's face."

Taylor Evans—"I'd like to be dominated by a real strong guy."

Biff Parker—"Lots of women."

Romeo Verdi—"Be tied up, spread eagle, and get sucked and fucked by three women."

Jeff Elliot—"To have beautiful women to play with."

CoCo—"To write my own sex advice column." (Note: she eventually wound up doing that for Velvet Talks under the name of Mona Minx.)

Taurus—"Have my cock measured by a couple of sexy size queens, and then have some well hung sex." (Note: Sam "Taurus" Frank did, in fact, create something called "The Hung Jury" and made me its "Vice President at Very Large.")

Of course, I couldn't resist responding to the questionnaire with the following: "My fantasy is fulfilled when I see my name on the screen." (Note: due to an error in the film's credit design, my name does not appear on the screen—although in every review of "Plato's The Movie" I am acknowledged and accorded credit, and, in fact, I am even praised by a few reviewers for delivering a "damn good performance.")

Sometimes "Those Were" one of the more unique ways things went in pursuit of "The Lays." □

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a red strapless dress with white polka dots and a multi-strand pearl bracelet, is lying down. A large, hairy penis is licking her mouth. She is looking towards the camera with a neutral expression. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be an outdoor setting with a wooden railing.
